McConville, Edward P. Jr. KINDERHOOK After months of illness, on the afternoon of May 18, 2016, Edward passed away in the arms of his family, at his home Kinderhook. Ed was 83 years old. He is survived by his devoted wife, Michelle; sons, Steve (Tina) of Schenectady and Collin (Amy) of Pultneyville, N.Y. Edward was preceded in death by his father Edward McConville, Sr. and mother, Anne McConville (Leonard). He was born November 5, 1932, in Albany. Although he traveled greatly for work, Albany was always home. He attended Vincentian Institute and worked at Stittig's as a soda jerk, which is where it is presumed he developed his never ending sweet tooth and unusual sense of humor. Ed attended University of Notre Dame, which forever made him a member of the fighting Irish and in 1956 he and obtained his law degree from Albany Law School. He was a founding partner in the law firm, Maney, McConville, Liccardi & Powis; served as town attorney for the Town of Kinderhook; a hearing officer for the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets and is listed in "Who's Who in America Law." Ed was an avid equestrian and past member of the Old Chatham Hunt. He also was a long time member of the Albany rowing club.
