John J. O'Brien

O'Brien, John J. MENANDS John J. O'Brien, 92, died on December 23, 2016. Born in Troy, he was the son of Timothy F. O'Brien and Katherine M. McCarthy. He graduated from Catholic Central High School in 1940, and while a student at Siena College, Loudonville, his studies were interrupted by military service in 1943. During World War II, he served as a Navy pilot in the Pacific Theatre, and was honorably discharged in 1946, whereupon he entered Albany Law School, graduating in 1948. John served as clerk of the Appellate Division of the New York State Supreme Court, Third Department. For many years he engaged in pro-life activities. John was predeceased by his wife, Anne Marie Weber; his wife, Bertha A. Manion; his daughter, Erin Anne O'Brien; sister, Alice; and brothers, William, Timothy and Robert O'Brien; and stepson, Timothy Manion. He is survived by his son, Neil O'Brien; brother, Tom O'Brien of New Canaan, Conn.; stepdaughters, Patricia Dwyer of Guilderland, Kathy Campbell of Brunswick, Mary Beth Manion of Warwick, R.I.; and nine stepgrandchildren. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on January 6, 2017, in St. Pius X Church, 23 Crumitie Road, Loudonville, at 10 a.m. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Little Sisters of the Poor (LittleSistersOfThePoorQueens.org) would be appreciated.
